

GREEN BY NATURE PROGRAM BOXES

Grades	Patch	Box Name	Box Description	Example Activities	Sessions	Cost (per girl)
K - 5		Pacific Flyway	Understand the uniqueness of the Pacific Flyway, a major migration zone in the Americas, and how birds play a vital part of our ecosystem.	Bird feeder, Bird Beak Boogie game,	3	$5
		Watershed	Learn about the Bay's inhabitants, how pollution disrupts the water cycle, and the challenges surrounding oil spills.	Paper bag watershed, Oil spill experiment, grow your own flower	3
		Waste Reduction	Learn about the enormous impact that waste has on the environment and the importance of the 4 R's (Reduce, Recuse, Recycle, and Rot.	Edible landfill, paper bag piñata,	3
4 - 6		Climate Change	Explore the basics of how the environment is changing and learn ways to reduce your ecological footprint.	Renewable energy game, reusable food-safe sandwich bag	3
		EcoMe: The Art of Nature*	Discover how the Green Movement applies to everyone through nature, photography and creative reuse.	Corn Husk doll, magazine bracelets	3
Girls Learning Environment and Energy (GLEE): A special partnership with Stanford University
4 - 6		Home Energy*	Girls explore "vampire energy," scavenger hunts, and role playing to explore how to save energy at home.	Energy scavenger hunt, newscast filming	5	$5
		Food & Transportation*	Girls explore food origins and how vehicles affect the environment.	Food origin game, video letter to president.	5

*The use of a digital recording device, like a phone or tablet, is recommended in these boxes.

Questions? Email gbn@girlscoutsnorcal.org

