Tips for Registering for Golden Gate Bridging
Please read ALL the way through

- Registration opens at 10am on October 16th, 2019.
- We do expect this event to sell out. While it can be hard to predict when Golden Gate Bridging (GGB) will sell out, we encourage you to purchase your tickets sooner rather than later.
- We do get a rush of people registering within the first few hours registration is open. So, if you can’t get into the site to register right away, be patient and try again.
- Once you register, you will receive a receipt emailed to you from GSNorCal@doubleknot.com. Please make sure your spam filters are able to receive emails from this email address. If, after updating your spam filter, you still did not receive this emailed receipt, contact Member Services (M-F, 9am-5pm) to ensure that you registered properly. (registration@gsnorcal.org; 800-447-4475 ext. 2091)
- When registering, please make sure to adhere to the one (1) to three (3) chaperone ratio. See the graph below for how many chaperones you must have.

- In years past, there have been rumors that we save tickets for last minute ticket buyers. Please be aware that all 7,000 tickets will be released on October 16th and that once the event is sold out, it is sold out.
- Please only purchase tickets IF YOU KNOW YOU ARE GOING. If you purchase tickets, do not attend and do not return your tickets, you waste the chance for someone else to go. Please be respectful of your sister scouts.
- Register for the event before you book your flight and hotel. Don’t make the mistake of purchasing the large ticket items before you know for certain you have tickets to the actual event.
- And speaking of hotels, when you register, there will be a Welcome Packet embedded in your emailed ticket receipt. In the Welcome Packet, you will find three hotels that offer discounted pricing for Girl Scouts during Golden Gate Bridging.

- You will ALSO find embedded in the emailed receipt, information on booking a stay at one of our camp locations, Camp Bothin (pronounced bow-theen). The Camp Bothin location offers the full Girl Scout experience with a two day stay at an official GS NorCal camp, complete with breakfast, sack lunch, transportation to and from GGB, and a campfire Saturday night. Plus, it is the budget conscience choice at only $85 per person.

- We accept Cookie Dough money from IN COUNCIL ONLY.

- The Welcome Packet that is emailed to you with the receipt is different from the Adventure Packet, which includes all the event details and will be emailed to participants in early April.

- Please note, we do not offer a waitlist for GGB.

- In years past, there have been a few folks who have purchased their tickets and then been unable to attend. If and when this happens, they offer their tickets up for grabs on the GGB Facebook page. We do not recommend you rely on this as your only means of procuring a ticket to GGB. There is no guaranteeing the number of tickets available through this method.

- Please remember that this is ticketed event. And un-ticketed tagalongs will jeopardize our permits and put us at risk for not being able to obtain the 7 necessary permits for future GGBs.
