Reach Out, Girl Scout!

In Girl Scouts, your girl has grown by leaps and bounds.

In these unusual times, Girl Scout membership is more valuable than ever before. For just $40, you’ll have access to an entire year of support, sisterhood, and fun with your troop, your family, and Girl Scout community.

Until we are together again in person, your girls can participate in virtual troop meetings, earn badges remotely, and connect with other Girl Scouts through a wide variety of exciting virtual events. We also have support and virtual activities for our volunteers.

As an alternative to using family funds, you and your troop can pay for our already low membership costs by using GSNorCal funds if your girls choose to use their Product Program reward cards, by agreeing with your troop to use troop funds, or by families requesting financial aid.

❤ Decide as a troop to use your troop funds to cover the renewal fees for all interested girls.

❤ To make sure everyone earns the Early Bird incentives, get a verbal commitment from your families. Set up an Early Bird membership collection in Cheddar Up today to start collecting the reimbursements.

❤ Talk to your girls about whether they want to use their Product Program Reward Cards to pay for their membership renewals. Our new form at gsnorcal.org/renew makes it easy.
