

Highest Awards Overview

Girl Scout Leadership Experience

The Girl Scout Leadership Experience (GSLE) provides a framework for supporting girls as they learn to lead by creating meaningful change in their communities, through their Highest Award project. There are three actions girls take during their project, three processes that they use to do so, and five ways they benefit as result. Which in the end leads to long term outcomes for girls.

